Saint John, New Brunswick,
the oldest city in Canada

New Brunswick or New York?

Call us a chameleon. Situated on the east coast of Canada, New Brunswick can quickly transform from real places with unique stories to ideal locations where you can create your own world. Enjoy competitive financial incentives, professional crews and film-friendly communities. Offering authentic historic settings, cityscapes and spectacular seaside vistas, it's just a short commute from New York, Boston, Toronto, and Montreal.

Pursue the potential. Call 506-444-4897 for more information and we'll send you a USB flash drive customized to your location requirements.

The National Film Board of Canada produces and distributes bold and distinctive social issue documentaries, auteur animation and digital content that provide the world with a unique Canadian perspective. Since its founding in 1939, the NFB has created over 12,000 productions and won over 5000 awards, including more than 90 Genie Awards. The NFB also received its 12th Academy Award® this year for the animated short The Danish Poet, directed by Torill Kove and co-produced by Norway's Mikrofilm AS and the NFB. The NFB is renowned for its technical innovations and is a leader in content for new platforms.

QUIGLEY PUBLISHING

COVERING THE BUSINESS OF FILM SINCE 1915

The International Motion Picture Almanac is a hardcover film industry resource book published annually each January. It covers the major U.S. studios in detail, listing all executives & divisions, with our international section providing worldwide coverage of industry leaders. We also report on the smaller companies destined to be tomorrow's giants. The almanac includes:

- Production: In-depth company listings with contact information.
- Films: Detailed listings of domestic and foreign releases from 2001-2006.
- Top grossing films — 1994-2006. Plus, major awards, film festivals and more.
- Exhibition, Distribution & Services: The name, address, screen count and market code for every U.S. theatre; also, circuit theatres by market and Specialty & Large format exhibitors. Distributors, buying and booking agents, screening rooms, trailers and exhibitor organizations.
- Biographies: Up-to-date career histories of more than 5,000 executives, actors, directors, producers, writers, casting directors and more.

Get a special price for purchasing The International Motion Picture Almanac as a set with our International Television and Video Almanac, which is a companion reference providing more than 900 pages of detailed coverage of the TV and video industries.

An agency of the Ministry of Culture, providing a wide range of programs and services to stimulate the growth of the province's film and television, book and magazine publishing, music and interactive digital media industries. OMDC's mandate is to build innovation, capacity and competitiveness in Ontario by working with the cultural media industries to maximize opportunities. For information on industry development and tax credit programs, please see our listing under Funding.
OMDC Film Unit Location Services
OMDC's Film Unit serves as Ontario's Film Commission, providing a variety of services designed to attract film and television production and post production activity to the province and assist shows when in production. These services include:
- complimentary location scouting to all projects considering Ontario
- information on facilities and services
- introductions to unions, guilds and personnel
- liaison with other government agencies
- facilitation and trouble-shooting for shows in production.

OMDC's New Digital Location Library
Online virtual scouting site accessible 24/7 from anywhere in the world contains almost 7,200 digital locations encompassing over 130,000 individual digital images, provides producers with interactive and fully searchable locations library for scouting potential filming sites for their upcoming productions.
Toronto-Ontario Film Office in Los Angeles
OMDC is the managing partner for this LA office, a public-private partnership with FilmOntario and the City of Toronto that employs two full-time staff to market Ontario as a premier film and television production centre.

Film Commissioner: Iris Merritt, iris.merritt@gov.yk.ca
The film and video companies that have come to the Yukon discovered a place where locations have transcended their imaginations. A place where nature works on a larger scale, where vast icefields reproduce Antarctica and living towns look like sets. The Yukon is adaptable, diverse and full of character. An extensive system of roads and highways that will take you to unbelievable landscapes and eclectic towns.

Created in 1967 and reporting to the Department of Canadian Heritage, Telefilm Canada is a federal cultural agency dedicated to the development and promotion of the Canadian audiovisual industry. Telefilm provides financial support to the private sector to create distinctively Canadian productions that appeal to domestic and international audiences.
In 2006-2007, Telefilm managed a total of close to $400 million in financial resources; $261 million was administered on behalf of the Canadian Television Fund. The resources managed by Telefilm are committed through the Canada Feature Film Fund and the Canada New Media Fund enabling Telefilm to act as key financing, strategic and promotional partner on both the international and national scenes.
Please consult the website for additional information concerning regional offices, funds and programs, co-production certification, festivals and markets, catalogues and current developments.

Partnering for success: Why coproduce with Canada?
International coproductions are a key component of Canadian film and television production. They are a favoured method of penetrating new markets and facilitating project financing.
Canadians are very active in the international coproduction area. They promote quality and demonstrate remarkable energy and understanding of markets, making them sought-after partners.
On behalf of the Canadian government,Telefilm administers official international coproduction agreements. These partnerships enable Canadian producers and their foreign counterparts to pool their creative, artistic, technical and financial resources to coproduce films and television programs that enjoy the status of national productions in each of the countries concerned.
At present, Canadian producers may create joint works with their counterparts in more than 50 countries.

Telefilm Canada: Building audiences for Canadian culture.
Telefilm Canada is a federal cultural agency dedicated to the development and promotion of the Canadian audiovisual industry. With the objective of building larger audiences for Canadian cultural products, the Corporation acts as a partner to the private sector through investments in diverse productions that speak to Canadians and that resonate with audiences around the world.
From screenwriting to international markets, Telefilm provides support for all industry activities.
The Corporation oversees a number of funds and programs, including the Canada Feature Film Fund and the Canada New Media Fund. Telefilm is also the administrator of the Canadian Television Fund.
From promoting Canadian films at major festivals and markets to stimulating new international coproduction partnerships, Telefilm Canada is also an innovative and entrepreneurial player on the worldwide market.

The Bell Fund has invested in the production of new media projects associated with television productions since 1997. Bell ExpressVu makes annual contributions of over $8 million to this Fund. In addition, the investments generated by a $10 million endowment from the BCE–CTV Benefits provide the funding to support the development of digital interactive projects.

investment and funding

Production Program: Projects must include both a broadcast (television) as well as a new media component to be eligible for funding support. The broadcast (television) component is eligible for a grant equal to 75% of total Canadian broadcast licence fees (up to $75,000). The new media component is eligible for a grant of 75% of the cost of production of the new media component (up to $250,000). Eligible television projects (broadcast component) must have a television licence commitment and be certified Canadian by the CRTC with 8 out of 10 Canadian Content points and be a drama, variety, documentary, children's, performing arts, or educational program.
Eligible new media projects (new media component) must be a new media project deliverable on a digital network with an emphasis on interaction, compelling video animation or other graphic and sound content. Industrial, corporate or promotional websites, arcade games and stand-alone CD-ROMs are not eligible.
Development Program: Grants for new media content development (which are associated with a television production) are available to a maximum of $50,000, which may not exceed 75% of the costs of development. A maximum of 25% of the budget will be allowed as deferrals. Projects with committed funding from a third-party source will receive a bonus in the evaluation process.
Application deadlines are February 1, May 1, October 1. Decisions are generally made within six – eight weeks of receipt of completed applications.
The Fund is administered by the Independent Production Fund. For more information contact the above offices or see our website.

Film Incentive BC (FIBC): is a labour-based tax incentive that provides refundable tax credits to Canadian-owned / British Columbia controlled production companies – film, television and animation – based on eligible BC labour costs. The production company must hold more than 50 per cent of the copyright in the production.
Production Services Tax Credit (PSTC): is also a labour-based tax credit incentive, for Canadian or international film and television production companies that have incurred costs in British Columbia. There is no requirement that the production company have an interest in the copyright. This program has three specific initiatives:
- the Basic tax credit encourages film & television production in the province,
- the Regional credit stimulates production outside of Vancouver,
- the Digital Animation or Visual Effects (DAVE) tax credit promotes the animation and visual effects industry in the province.

A variety of grants and services for professional Canadian media artists and media arts organizations. All programs are accessible to aboriginal artists or arts organizations, and artist or arts organizations from diverse cultural and regional communities of Canada.

Grants for Media Artists:
Film and Video Artists: supports Canadian professional independent artists who use cinema and video as a mode of artistic expression and provides them with opportunities for creative renewal and for production of independent film and video works. The program offers three components:
Research/Creation Grants: provide artists with opportunities for creative renewal, experimentation, professional development and research. Grants enable artists to concentrate full-time on a program of work for a specific period of time. This component addresses artists whose practice combines experimentation, exploration and research in conjunction with production
Production Grants: cover the direct costs of production and post-production of independent film or video works.
Scriptwriting Grants: cover the direct costs of scriptwriting (which includes research for artists' documentaries) for independent film and video artworks.
These grants are not intended to support work created for the cultural industries of commercial film and television. This program is explicitly aimed at supporting projects involved in the renewal and exploration of cinematographic and/or videographic practice. Only directors may apply; producers are not eligible.
Applicants may work with a producer, but the artist/director must maintain full creative and editorial control of the project
For further details, please consult the eligibility criteria and applications that are available on the website – deadlines are March 1 and October 1 each year.

New Media and Audio Artists: Research and Production Grants assist Canadian artists working with new media or audio technologies as means of artistic expression. Grants cover artist's subsistence costs as well as the direct costs of research, creative development and production of artworks created with new media or audio technologies.
These grants are not intended to support work created for the cultural industries of commercial new media, radio or television broadcasting. These grants support artists making a creative use of interactive information and communications technologies and/or audio production technologies. Priority is given to projects that involve innovation and artistic expression.

For further details, please consult the eligibility criteria and applications that are available on the website – deadlines are March 1 and October 1 each year.

Canadian Film or Video Production Tax Credit (CPTC): Under this program, CAVCO performs two distinct functions: 1) Canadian content certification, and 2) estimation of the eligible expenses of production. In order for a production to qualify as Canadian content for tax credit purposes through CAVCO, the production must meet specific criteria for key creative personnel and production costs, which are outlined in the guidelines. The CPTC is available at a rate of 25 per cent of eligible salaries and wages. Eligible salaries and wages qualifying for the tax credit may not exceed 60 per cent of the cost of the production, net of assistance. The tax credit could provide a refund of up to 15 per cent of the cost of production, net of assistance.
Film or Video Production Services Tax Credit (PSTC): Designed to encourage the employment of Canadians by a taxable Canadian or a foreign-owned corporation with a permanent establishment in Canada, the activities of which are primarily film or video production, or production services. CAVCO's role under the PSTC is to determine the eligibility of the production and to issue an accredited film or video production certificate (Accreditation Certificate). The PSTC is a tax credit equal to 16 per cent of salary and wages paid to Canadian residents or taxable Canadian corporations (for amounts paid to employees who are Canadian residents. This refundable tax credit has no cap on the amount which can be claimed and is available to taxable Canadian corporations or foreign-owned corporations with permanent establishments in Canada.

A dynamic private sector funding body which supports non-theatrical film, videos and new media projects created by Canadian independent producers to enable lifelong learning. Financial assistance is provided to independent producers for the development and production of English and French language films or videos, and interactive digital new media programs, in a variety of subject areas using the formats of documentary, docudrama, drama and animation to inform, educate and/or instruct. The CIFVF is unique in focusing on the non-theatrical market. A broadcast licence is not required in order to apply to the CIFVF for funding: this is an extremely important factor for first time producers. The CIFVF assists projects that have been unable to attain the required level of broadcast licence fees to be eligible for Canadian Television Fund or Telefilm funding.

A private fund established by Cogeco Inc. to encourage the development of new scripts by Canadian writers for dramatic TV series and MOWs, to be produced by independent Canadian producers, primarily for private sector broadcasters (in English or French, or preferably in both). Development financing is also available for theatrical feature film production companies. Also, production financing for MOWs and pilots for dramatic series.
Development Program: An endowment of $5 million was made by Cogeco Inc. and the revenues generated by the Fund (interest, loan repayment and other) are invested as development advances. Development advances are available in three categories for broadcast programming:
1. Bible for the series and treatment
2. First draft scripts
3. Second/final draft scripts
Deadlines: March 1, July 1, October 1. Decisions are made approximately eight weeks after these deadlines.
Production Program: Approximately $2 million per year is contributed by Cogeco Cable for equity production financing. Production investments are for MOWs of 90 minutes or more running time, two-part mini-series intended for prime time broadcast, or pilots for drama series. Eligible applicants must be independent producers with a minimum of two years' production experience. Screenwriters must be Canadian. A firm letter of commitment from an eligible Canadian broadcaster is also required.
Deadlines: March 1, July 1, October 1. Decisions are made approximately eight weeks after these deadlines.
Theatrical Feature Film Development Program: For qualified production companies with a minimum of three feature films in development. Loans up to $35,000 are available. Deadline for application is July 1.

The Fund is administered by the Independent Production Fund. For more information contact the above offices or see our website.

The Board of Directors is composed of seven members representing the industry: Charles Ohayon (President), Roman Melnyk (Vice-President), Paul Gratton, Heather McGillivray, Peter Mortimer, Denise Robert, Robert Roy

The Independent Production Fund was established as a private independent foundation to assist independent production companies in financing the production of Canadian television drama series for private sector broadcasters. With a capital endowment of $37 million, the annual revenues generated by this capital, and return on equity constitute the funds at the Board's disposal each year. The IPF has up to $3 million per year for equity investment.
The Fund provides equity investments to qualified independent production companies with a broadcast licence from a Canadian private broadcaster.
The focus is on (1) the production of dramatic series for prime-time telecast, and (2) the production of dramatic series for children.
A portion of the Fund is used for grants to non-profit organizations and associations for professional development and training activities which encourage dramatic television series development in Canada.
Deadlines: March 15, May 1, October 15.
Decisions are made by the Board approximately six - eight weeks after these dates.
Visit our website for guidelines and details.

An initiative by the Directors Guild of Canada, BC, and British Columbia Film, with the participation of Post Modern Sound, Finale Editworks & Sharpe Sound, to provide emerging filmmakers from British Columbia with a calling card film that will assist them in pursuing a directing career. The Kick Start program awards $20,000 plus post-production assistance to five Directors each year for the production of a ten-minute dramatic film or video. The Directors complete their projects under the guidance of a mentor from the industry who acts as a consultant and resource person to the production. Applicants must be either a graduate from a post-secondary institution or a recognized film school, or possess equivalent experience in the film industry. In addition, projects must be completed within a year and have a maximum cash budget of $50,000.

Manitoba Film & Video Production Tax Credit Program: A 45 per cent base tax credit on eligible Manitoba labour expenses; an additional 5 per cent rural bonus when at least 50 per cent of the Manitoba production days are a minimum of 35 km from Winnipeg; and a frequent filming bonus provides an additional 5 per cent credit on the third film project shot within a two-year period. Co-productions qualify, there is no copyright ownership requirement, no Canada or Manitoba content requirement, and the program is compatible with the federal CAVCO tax credit programs. Eligible projects include fully financed feature films, television movies, documentaries, dramatic series, animation, children's programming, music programming, informational series, variety, multimedia, digital and CD-ROM productions.

Market Driven Television Development: A three-phase program for the development of viable motion picture concepts into dramatic screenplays for television. Applicants must have confirmed funding in place from a third-party source and a broadcasting cash commitment of 20 per cent of budget, or a strong letter of interest from a distributor.

Market Driven Feature Film Development: Development of viable motion picture concepts into screenplays for theatrical release. Full-length documentaries and movies for television are not eligible. Four phases of the program: concept to fully developed treatment, treatment to first draft screenplay, second draft screenplay and final draft / packaging.

Market Driven Feature Film Production: Assists with production financing of a fully-developed feature film project through equity investment and/or recoupable, no-interest bearing advances. Projects will be evaluated by an independent jury. Investment does not normally exceed the lesser of 20 per cent of the total production budget, or 30 per cent of the portion of the production budget paid to Manitoba residents and businesses.

Emerging Talent Matching Funds Program: Support for entry-level filmmakers who have secured production funding from a recognized industry organization such as Telefilm or the National Screen Institute. The contribution is in the form of an equity investment and may be up to 50 per cent of the total budget, to a maximum of $10,000.

Portfolio Investment Envelope (PIE) Program: Assists Manitoba production companies to increase their capacity to develop and produce Manitoba film projects.

New Brunswick Film supports and promotes the film and television industry in the Province of New Brunswick, Canada. Call New Brunswick Film to discuss opportunities that we can provide for your productions – animation, documentaries, television series, feature films and MOW's, and children's. New Brunswick offers a 40 per cent New Brunswick Film Labour Tax Credit to encourage the hiring of New Brunswick residents. The value of this Labour Tax Credit may be included as part of the calculation of a production company's equity in a production. When New Brunswick Film determines that it is in the best interest of the Province, New Brunswick Film may waive the requirement that the NB Film Labour Tax Credit apply only to wages of New Brunswick residents. This may occur when, in the opinion of New Brunswick Film, there is no qualified NB worker available to perform the specific function and the out-of-province worker fulfilling this function is mentoring a New Brunswick resident; in addition, when, in the opinion of New Brunswick Film the overall economic benefits to the Province are such that a waiver is warranted. In order to receive a waiver, the producer must demonstrate that each individual waived is mentoring a New Brunswick worker and each trainee has a training plan and evaluation process in place that is approved by New Brunswick Film. The determination of the applicability of the tax credit to a specific project is fully at the discretion of New Brunswick Film.

Development Loans: New Brunswick Film provides support to qualified New Brunswick producers to assist with the development phase of an eligible New Brunswick–based film production or a co-production with a New Brunswick production company. The Development Loan can include development of a dramatic treatment and research through to final draft or outline for film or television including pre-production and budget preparation.

Equity Investment: New Brunswick Film can take an equity position in film and television productions that are produced or co-produced by New Brunswick producers.

Film Festivals: New Brunswick Film sponsors FICFA (the New Brunswick Festival international du cinema francophone en Acadie), the Silver Wave Film Festival and the Atlantic Canada Film Festival.

The NLFDC administers two main programs — the Equity Investment Program (EIP) and the Newfoundland and Labrador Film and Video Industry Tax Credit. The programs are designed to assist and promote the development of the indigenous film and video industry in Newfoundland and Labrador. The eligibility criteria are designed to ensure maximum employment and growth in the Newfoundland and Labrador film and video industry.

Equity Investment Program: To support Newfoundland and Labrador based production, NLFDC will provide production assistance in the form of Equity Investment to eligible producers for the financing of productions. Equity Investment is a financial contribution by the NLFDC that shall be repaid from earned income revenue resulting from the production. The NLFDC will normally provide a maximum contribution of 20 per cent of the total production budget.

Film and Video Industry Tax Credit: NLFDC also administers a fully refundable corporate income tax credit for the Newfoundland and Labrador Department of Finance. The program encourages the development, training and hiring of Newfoundland film personnel in all disciplines. The credit is based on a calculation of eligible labour limited to the lesser of 25 per cent of the total eligible budget or 40 per cent of the total eligible labour expenditures.

Development: Up to one-third of the total development budget, interest free, to a maximum of $15,000, recoupable on the first day of principal photography or transfer of the project to a third party. Financial commitment from broadcasters is required for all but feature film projects.

Equity Investment: to a maximum of $250,000, based on the portion of the production budget expended in Nova Scotia. Feature films, television programming and specials are eligible. Co-productions are eligible where applicants are Nova Scotia-based production companies or residents. The New Media Program also provides equity investment for interactive projects related to feature or television projects.

Tax Credit: Available to qualifying productions and co-productions produced and/or shot in Nova Scotia. Eligible genres include television, videotape, feature film, non-theatrical production or interactive websites associated with television or feature film projects, and the subject is drama, variety, performing arts, animated or informational series, documentary or music programming, including music videos. No limit on the size of the production budget, no corporate or asset cap, and no Canadian content or copyright ownership requirements associated with this tax credit. The tax credit is not reduced by any other tax credits that the production may receive. A fully refundable tax credit of 35 per cent for productions shooting in the Halifax centre, and 40 per cent for areas 30 km or more from the city core. A further 5 per cent frequent filming bonus is applied to companies that commence principal photography on their third film within a two-year period.

Documentary & Drama Fund: As part of the licensing approval process for OMNI.2, Rogers Media Television made a number of important commitments to finance the independent production of ethnic programming and to support multicultural public service projects. Within the $50 million in total commitments, OMNI Television will provide $32.5 million to fund the independent production of ethnic, third-language documentary and drama programs. This will take place over seven years (2009).

Documentary Fund – British Columbia & Manitoba: As a result of the acquisition of OMNI TV in Vancouver, Victoria and Winnipeg, Rogers Broadcasting has promised at least $950,000 in important tangible benefits to assist independent producers in both British Columbia and Manitoba to develop and produce religious and faith-based documentaries. The benefits will be used for the licensing and production of Canadian religious programming (Category 4). The total benefits package of $950,000 will be spent over the entire seven-year period, with a maximum of $250,000 spent each year. Our target is storytelling, people biographies and historic contributions to the faith or multi-faith illustrations of service or accomplishments. Our preferred format will be 30 minutes with a $500 to $4,000 ($15,000 to $120,000) per minute guideline.

This Fund provides approximately $5 million a year in equity financing to independent Canadian producers for television programming triggered by a first window broadcast on a Canadian cable network (i.e., a licensed Canadian specialty or premium service). The Fund will invest up to 20 per cent of the lesser of the total production budget or final cost of eligible projects to a maximum of $300,000 per project. The Fund supports the following programming genres: drama, documentaries, children's programming, educational, instructional, performing arts and variety. The Fund operates primarily as an interim or bridge lender, advancing funds against secured commitments to eligible, independent Canadian producers, in order that production can be completed before all committed production financing payments are received. All production financing must be contractually committed before funds are advanced. The Fund has a strong preference for television projects and requires that a Canadian broadcaster be in place before a project will be considered. The Fund will consider many categories of programming, including drama, children's programs and documentaries; however, it is fundamental to the evaluation and selection process that the projects be outstanding in both quality and Canadian theme. See the website for further details, applications and deadlines.

Tax Credit Program: For certified Québec companies, the content tax credit of 29.16 per cent for eligible labour expenses. This credit is capped at 14.58 per cent of the production budget (19.68 per cent for eligible French-language features and documentaries), 19.68 per cent for large-format films and 24.28 per cent for regionally-based productions (outside Montreal). In addition to the residency requirement additional certification criteria and a point system exist to qualify eligible productions. Feature film co-productions must spend at least 75 per cent of the Québec portion of the production budget in the province (which is also what the base tax credit is calculated on). Additional tax credits and top-up programs are available for expenditures in production services, animation, special effects and CGI.

Support Programs: Annually, approximately $26 million in grant and investment programs: writing of original scripts ($2.4 million), production of short, medium and full length feature films and documentaries ($19.5 million) and a further $2.9 million the marketing and distribution of Québec film and television productions, exhibitors, film festivals and co-productions. An additional $1.6 million is available for emerging filmmakers (ages 18 to 35) through the Young Creators program. Complete details of these programs are available on the website.

A variety of funding opportunity is offered.

Film Development Fund: Funding for up to 50 per cent of Yukon expenditure to a maximum of $35,000 or 33 per cent of total expenses (whichever is less). There are four phases of development; concept to fully developed script, treatment to first-draft script, first-draft to final-draft screenplay; polish/rewrites and pre-production expense. Where a Yukon screenwriter is mentored under the process, an additional $10,000 may be available. Residents or provincially- registered production companies are eligible, and a broadcast or distribution agreement must be in place.

Film Production Fund: A maximum of $500,000 is available. Calculated on 30 per cent of Yukon expenses, or 30 per cent of total production costs (whichever is less) for residents or Yukon corporations; for co-productions, 30 per cent of Yukon expenses, or 20 per cent of total production costs (whichever is less). Co-production companies must be registered in the province. Recipients of funding under this program are not eligible for the Location Incentive Fund.

Yukon Filmmakers Fund: To encourage development of local professional training and expertise, up to $8,000 is available for expenditure from development through to post-production.

Travel Rebate: Up to 50 per cent of the cost of travel from Calgary, Edmonton or Vancouver to Whitehorse. Available for feature film, television drama and commercial productions.

Labour Rebate: a 35 per cent labour rebate for eligible Yukon labour. To be eligible for this rebate the production must be either dramatic television, MOW, or a feature film. In the case of documentaries evidence of a broadcast license must be supplied. Television commercials are not eligible and the Yukon labour content must equal or exceed 25 per cent of the total person days on the Yukon portion of the production. For the purpose of this rebate eligible Yukon labour costs are capped at 50 per cent of total Yukon expenditures. The production company must be pre-approved based on anticipated production arrangements.

Training Rebate: for on-set training of our local crew, so that we can provide visiting productions with increased Yukon hire in order to take full advantage of our labour rebates.

Creative Risk:
A CHOPPER SHOT OF THE UBIQUITOUS CELEBRITY DANGLING PRECARIOUSLY OVER FIJI'S MOUNT SHEENA.

Professional Risk:
FORGETTING TO CHECK THE GATE.

Who will take the heat?

Creative folks know that risk can be the difference between a cool shot and a forgettable one. Yet creative risk often gives rise to professional risk, something that extends to every part of the creative process. If ignored, professional risk can get a project into hot water or shut it down entirely. It's my job to anticipate and help eliminate the problems that can threaten your project, by developing an insurance plan that is tailored to film and TV production. So, check with your celebrity's agent. Then give me a call. Because in the heat of the moment, anything can be overlooked.

The Canadian music industry is only as strong as the sum of its parts. We are proud to play a leading role, working with other organizations to ensure the long-term health of our members' livelihoods and the Canadian music industry as a whole. SOCAN is the Canadian copyright collective for the communication and performance of musical works. We administer these rights on behalf of our members (composers, lyricists, songwriters and their publishers) and those affiliated international organizations by licensing this use of their music in Canada. The fees collected are distributed as royalties to our members and to affiliated organizations throughout the world. We also distribute royalties received from those organizations to our members for the use of their music worldwide.

Thanks to music creators, film never sounded so good.

Nothing makes a movie come alive quite like music. And no other organization champions the rights of Canadian music creators and their publishers quite like SOCAN.

With the help of many affiliated organizations, SOCAN protects the livelihoods of more than 85,000 members and hundreds of thousands of international music creators and their publishers, in Canada and around the world.

Canadian Retransmission Collective

A small fortune in retransmission royalties has been collected since the Canadian Retransmission Collective was established. What does this mean to you? Each year, we distribute millions of dollars in royalties to Canadian independent producers, producers of programs shown on PBS, and foreign producers (outside North America). To discover if you qualify to receive a share, and to learn more about how you can collect, visit our new website.

The Alberta Motion Picture Industries Association (AMPIA) is a non-profit professional service association serving the independent motion picture production community in the province of Alberta. AMPIA was founded in 1973 with the single aim of furthering the independent motion picture industry as a viable economic and cultural force within the province.
Historically, AMPIA has been recognized and called upon to serve as a voice for the Alberta film and video industries. In 1994 the Association strengthened this voice by expanding its membership to include a broader base of industry professionals within its voting membership. Likewise, the organization expanded the size and scope of the AMPIA Board of Directors to reflect the various sectors of this dynamic industry.
A monthly newsletter, Keep It Rolling, goes out to more than 500 people in the film industry, both members and non-members of AMPIA. Other Association activities include industry advocacy, professional development and information services.

1958 - 2008

THE ACTORS' FUND OF CANADA is a registered charity that provides short-term financial aid to entertainment industry professionals working in film & TV, theatre, music or dance. Performers, creators, technical staff and other production team members can apply for help from the Fund which has delivered over $3 million in rent payments, grocery money, utility payments and other basic living expenses to clients over the last 10 years.

Your donation will help the Fund deliver over $400,000 in emergency aid to entertainment industry workers this year.
Even a small amount will make a difference.

The CCA is Canada's oldest and largest arts advocacy organization and artists network. A national, non-governmental, non-profit association, it endeavours to strengthen public and private support to the arts and enhance the awareness of the role and value of the arts through communication, information, research, promotion and consultation activities. As part of its information program, the CCA publishes various bilingual policy papers and reports on the arts, as well as a handbook — The Directory of the Arts — a selective guide to federal and provincial departments, agencies and people with responsibility for arts and culture and a guide to more than 150 national associations, service organizations and unions in the fields of broadcasting, copyright, crafts, dance, education, film, heritage, music, publishing, recording, theatre, visual arts and writing. The Directory, which is updated bi-annually, also features a listing of provincial arts associations across Canada.
The CCA also publishes BLIZZART, a quarterly newsletter on current arts issues.

Formed in 1940 as an organization dedicated to the welfare of all men and women of the motion picture industry. It has grown to its present-day strength of over 900 members in five branches across Canada. Original membership requirements called for 25 years of service in the industry. This period of service has now been reduced to 5 years. Everyone involved in industry, theatrical or home entertainment qualifies for membership; no matter what their job title; doorman, cashier, caretaker, manager, projectionist, booker, corporate employee, industry supplier etc. The Canadian Picture Pioneers Trust Fund helps any members of the film industry in need by, for example, frequently paying additional medical and special treatment costs, providing wheelchairs and general living expenses. In 1983 the Trust Fund began to provide scholarships to post-secondary students in the industry or have parents working as part of the industry.

A national non-profit association for theatre owners whose purpose is to:
a) maintain a national trade association of motion picture theatre exhibitors, consisting of owners, operators, executives and managers;
b) forward and promote the general welfare and prosperity of motion picture exhibitors;
c) gather, receive and disseminate such information as may seem helpful to members and associated organizations; to interchange ideas in rendering mutual assistance and to provide helpful vocational advice and guidance, and in general to act as a group representing national interests.
The Association's head office is in Toronto, and each province has its own organization.

ShowCanada
The Association's annual convention and trade show is held at a different location in Canada each year, and member provinces take turns hosting the three-day event. Four hundred delegates participate in the seminars and social activities, which include screenings of new products.
In 2008 the convention will be held in Banff. Please contact Adina Lebo (416) 969-7075 or www.showcanada.ca for details.

ShowCanada Showmanship Awards
The Showmanship Awards, presented at a ceremony during each convention, were devised to encourage managers to create promotions around film product and special showings. The current five categories for theatre-level personnel are:
- The Blockbuster Film Award – for studio-initiated films with massive merchandising and promotional components
- Showmanship Award – for a film-specific campaign which has been developed by a theatre manager or circuit
- Audience Development Award – for programs focusing on community service and audience development
- Concessions Award – for the best snack promotion
- Promotions of Canadian Film, French and English

The Banff New Media Institute runs, partners and collaborates on a series of professional development and training workshops and seminars over the course of the year. BNMI workshops are dedicated to all aspects of new media creation — art, research, technology, financing, publishing and distribution. The workshops combine theoretical presentations with practical work. They are designed as learning laboratories where participants, under the guidance of new media experts, engage in cross-disciplinary dialogue and project creation. As well as providing high-level training opportunities, professional development at BNMI workshops represents an excellent occasion for networking, providing participants with exposure and rare access to internationally renowned artists and researchers.

Our program has both a production stream and an acting stream and offers either a one-year advanced certificate or two-year applied degree in either stream. Courses for both streams include Film Fundamentals, Directing, Screenwriting, Motion Picture Projects and Business/Career Path. Production students also take Technology and Production courses (cinematography, sound, editing, lighting, etc.), and Performance students take Acting and Audition courses.
This is a hands-on program where students are actively involved on shoots (digital/film) throughout the term. This program provides the students with the skills needed to enter the film industry behind and/or in front of the camera. We teach to industry standards and all the staff are practising film professionals. Students are encouraged to be entrepreneurial filmmakers. Graduates of the Performing Arts at Red Deer College have a strong track record of work in the industry, from Canada to Hollywood.
The program starts at year 3. Eligible preparation includes a two-year diploma from a recognized theatre technology (production) or theatre performance (acting) program. Two years of study in related subject areas may be considered as equivalent. BA/BFA Drama majors, mature students and those with substantial industry experience will be invited to apply as well. All applicants will be subject to auditions and interviews.

Hands-on training in screenwriting, cinematography and post-production, as well as producing and the business of film/video.
radio, television & broadcast news (RTBN)
Option Streams: broadcast news, radio, television with hands-on production experience.
New Media Production & Design (NMPD)
Multimedia, graphic design, web design, digital audio, digital video, website development, interactive authoring, 2D and 3D animation, CD-ROM and DVD-ROM production and game design.
All are two-year diploma programs with fall start dates. Seats are high in demand, so we recommend applying as early as possible between November and March. Classes, seminars and labs guide students from the idea stage to pre-production, production and post-production. We use industry-standard hardware and software. Students develop practical skills by working on numerous and challenging projects.

The program examines cinema in North America as well as in other parts of the world. The program is concerned with the moving image both as a medium of artistic expression and as a carrier of social values. Primary goals of the program are to educate students in the areas of: film and media history; fundamentals of visual literacy in film and television; film and media narrative; aesthetic styles and strategies in film; and the role played by film and media in social and cultural life, including their representation of gender, race and class. Secondary but important areas of instruction include more specialized and intensive instruction in film and media theory; film and media popular culture; national cinemas and media systems; and authorship and genre in film. The program contains no production component at this time.

Motion Picture Production Program (Certificate)
This two-term program introduces students to the complex world of dramatic film and television production. While offering a general overview of the motion picture industry, it also explores in detail such elements as camera and lighting techniques, digital editing, screenplay analysis, film-related business basics, and cinematic history. Further, the intensive, digitally based production schedule offers the students thorough, hands-on experience in the development, production and post-production phases of dramatic film production.
Based on industry-standard protocols and taught by seasoned film professionals, this curriculum provides the students not only with a solid foundation in the creative and technical aspects of film production, but also with crucial team skills such as leadership, communication, collaboration, crisis management and group decision-making. The knowledge and skills acquired in this program will stand students in good stead, whether they seek out entry-level positions in BC's film industry, or continue their film education in Capilano College's rigorous second- and third-year programs in Motion Picture Production.

Motion Picture Production Program (Diploma)
The two-term Motion Picture Production Diploma Program builds upon the foundations established in the Motion Picture Production Certificate Program. This 2nd year program delves more deeply into "above the line" areas of expertise, such as screenwriting, producing and directing, as well as exploring post-production concerns as editing and sound design. A challenging schedule of student productions is a key element of the curriculum. Several film scripts, written and developed during the Fall Semester, will be produced in the Spring Semester. Following industry standards as closely as possible, these films are for the most part shot on location, often making use of professional actors.

Motion Picture Program (Advanced Diploma)
This two-term program is intended to build upon the knowledge and skills acquired in the 2nd Year of the Motion Picture Production Program. As well as further explorations in the subjects of film history, screenwriting, producing and directing, special emphasis will be placed on the business aspects of independent filmmaking, such as production accounting, budgeting and financing. This program will also familiarize students with the concept of visual esthetics, as well as introducing them to the vast array of possibilities available though Special and Visual Effects.

New: A 4th Year (Bachelor of Applied Arts in Film) Degree Program is in active development.

Additional programs include: Acting for Camera / Costuming / Lighting & Grip (entry level) / Cinematography / Set Dressing.

Minor in Film Studies
A unique, interdisciplinary program whose purpose is to provide students with a broad intellectual background while developing their abilities to read films critically, formulate articulate and thoughtful arguments, and communicate effectively. The focus of the program is on breadth of learning and on integrating knowledge from many of the traditional disciplines in order to provide an intellectual grounding in ideas and values that have shaped our culture.
The Minor helps students develop expertise in all areas of film studies, including film aesthetics, film history, film theory, film genres, national cinemas, film criticism and film production. Through the study of both Western and non-Western film traditions and movements students not only acquire a deeper cultural understanding and aesthetic appreciation of the art of filmmaking but also develop a firm grasp of film vocabulary and of a range of aesthetic, technological, economic, social and cultural film discourses. In addition to the four core courses students choose from a range of electives, including (but not limited to): European Cinema since 1960, Film and Philosophy, Film and Literature, Classical Hollywood Cinema, Film Remakes, The City in Cinema, Migrant and Diasporic European Cinema, Canadian Cinema, Film Noir, Science Fiction Cinema, Time and Cinema, Art Cinema, Race and Gender in Cinema, and others.
The program appeals to students who are passionate about all kinds of films: foreign films, Hollywood films, art films, avant-garde films. The Minor in Film Studies provides a bridge between theory and practice by training students both in theoretical/historical approaches to cinema and in film production. Students interested in pursuing a graduate degree in Film Studies as well as those aspiring to become screenwriters, directors, editors, cinematographers, producers or actors will benefit most from this program.

Broadcast Television
This two-year diploma program provides students with the formal training needed to become leaders in the television production industry. Curriculum covers all aspects of the production process and is focussed on making graduates job-ready. Equal weight is given to the creative side of production and technical operations.

Interactive Multimedia
This program concentrates on delivering rich-media applications combined with traditional multimedia elements. Multimedia is the combination of text, graphics, sound and animation to create different applications on computers for personal, informational, entertainment or educational use. Students receive hands-on experience in creating, manipulating and combining video, audio, graphics and text to create multimedia products and applications. These applications may include web sites incorporating database and e-commerce, CD-ROMs, video, audio, screen-savers, and games. The program covers the main elements of multimedia planning and development and equal importance is given to the creative and technical aspects. This program uses Flash in most courses and assumes previous multimedia, graphic design or programming experience.

Interactive Multimedia Developer
The program is designed to prepare students for a career as an Interactive Multimedia Developer in web and CD-ROM/DVD-ROM development. Today many businesses and organizations want to communicate information through the Internet, CD-ROM/DVD-ROM, kiosks, computer displays and other digital equipment. Strong emphasis is placed on developing the hands-on component, which is offered through courses in web development, digital imaging, authoring, animation, photography and video.

Film Studies is an academic discipline concerned with the history, criticism, theory and practice of the cinema both as an art form and as a documentary record of our time. The cinema is a source of pleasure and knowledge, and its study should form a part of one's cultural education. The Film Studies program offered by the School for Studies in Art and Culture is interested in the history, aesthetics, and criticism of the cinema. Our ten full-time faculty, together with part-time instructors, have a broad range of expertise and enthusiasms, and together we provide a comprehensive and varied approach to the discipline. Carleton does not offer courses in film production, although students can apply outside production experience to upper-level courses. Courses in film studies include national cinemas, such as the cinemas of Great Britain, France, Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, Latin America, Germany, Russia, United States, as well as Canada; studies of individual filmmakers; genre and medium studies, such as the documentary, the musical, animation, experimental film and video, and digital media; introductory and advanced courses in film theory and history; the film industry; topics in cinema and gender and special topics.

In this comprehensive two year program, each student will create a minimum of four short films shot on 16 mm motion picture film, and will experience crew positions on a minimum of 16 other productions. Students will be able to utilize our new production facility that boasts many state of the art features in both production and post production. Shooting on film, editing in 16:9 High Definition, mixing in 5.1 surround, and outputting in Blu Ray and DVD are all part of the experience. Access to the equipment and the production facility is 24 hour a day, seven days a week. Currently, the film program has one of the best student to equipment ratios in Canada and with knowledgeable, experienced instructors and small class sizes, an effective and valuable experience is the result. Using the film industry as a model, filmmaking as a craft is experienced from A-Z including scriptwriting, budget, pre-production, production, post production, and distribution. The art of filmmaking is complemented with technical know-how and hands-on experience. In addition to the film core subjects the student will take a number of general subjects complementing film production. Graduates may find junior levels of employment in every area of the film industry. These include production, camera, lighting, sound, editing and writing.

This program focuses on the 'making' of television programming…from news and documentary, to series production and everything in between. It offers short (2 year) intensive hands-on training designed to get graduates out and working in the industry. A four week internship at the end of second year assists in getting that important first job. Students have 24-hour-7-day-a-week access to a state of the art digital facility as they research, write and produce a variety of projects. Graduates find work in the television production, post-production, broadcast operations and news environments as videographers, video editors, reporters/announcers, scriptwriters and technical operations personnel. Graduates may also find employment in the related fields of sales, promotion, corporate communications and advertising.

Animation — Computer Arts
This three-year program for secondary school graduates has been developed to enable graduates to approach the industry with a broad and creative skills set or to continue on at a master level in the graduate studies program. The first year of the program engages in the exploration of the four areas in classical arts: visual, audio, performance and language. A sound understanding of these is the foundation for the development of digital movies for many areas of production, including film, advertising, industrial, documentaries, and television series. Students are introduced to the software and hardware systems used in the production, as well as the traditional artists tools engaged in drawing and sculptural processes. The second year of the program takes a full swing into the process of project development, engaging in the arts and storytelling processes of year one, using the computer as the primary production tool. A series of projects are undertaken using practices parallel to those used in professional studios from pre-production, to production, to post. Advanced studies in the arts of movement for animation, modeling and rigging, lighting, shading, rendering, and design for games are combined with the continuing studies in filmmaking. Drawing skills are exercised further, for the development of both preproduction and portfolio materials. In the final year, as projects become more advanced, students begin to take the initiative in critical management of design and timelines for projects. The tools of compositing and editing also begin to play a larger role in design considerations. Presentation materials are developed in different formats, along with a full art portfolio. Throughout the program, students interact with the real world of the studios, through tours, guest lectures, workshops. Film screenings, art gallery tours, performances and lectures will provide ongoing connections to the current trends in design and communication through this media.

Multimedia Design
Multimedia computing is a three-year Ontario College Advanced Diploma program that offers leading-edge technology with widespread applications. This program will be of interest to those wishing to specialize in the effective communication of information and ideas by combining multiple mediums such as audio, images, two- and three-dimensional animation, graphics and video. Delivery methods vary from DVDs, CD-ROMs and the Internet. Some of this information will need to be retrieved from databases and then inserted back into databases.
The program concentrates on multi-media authoring software, such as Adobe Photoshop and Macromedia Flash and includes essential knowledge in interactive interface design, the development of effective presentations in a variety of settings, HTML, programming, operating systems, SQL, and networking.

OCAD graduates some of the country's finest artists and designers. Those interested in film and video production at OCAD apply to enter the Integrated Media Program in the Faculty of Art. Integrated Media is an interdisciplinary area of study that fosters ingenuity, creativity and adaptability in a world where digital technology increasingly influences daily experience.
Integrated Media majors are encouraged to develop a unique, personal language, while applying critical perspectives on technological practices and media conventions. Students in Integrated Media are introduced to the creative possibilities of a broad realm of time-based practices including film, video, audio, animation, performance art, robotics, electronics and web-based art.
For those interested in concentrating their studies in film and video production and post-production critical and theoretical study with an emphasis on independent and experimental production is combined with courses that offer a hands-on experience with rotoscoping, optical printing, digital compositing, directing, scriptwriting, cinematography, sound recording, editing and lighting techniques. Students graduating from the Integrated Media Program with a Bachelor of Fine Arts emerge as strong cultural producers eager to challenge the limits and meanings of new media and cutting-edge technologies. For more information check out the Integrated Media Program in the Faculty of Art on the OCAD website.

Cinema is composed of three areas: Film, Animation, Film Production and Film Studies. One factor which distinguishes the School's program from many others in cinema is that Concordia's are offered through the Faculty of Fine Arts; thus, each program approaches the subject matter first as a means of artistic and cultural expression. Consequently, a central aim of these programs is to prepare students to become filmmakers, film animators or film historians/critics/theorists who have a two-fold awareness: one aspect involves the artistic and cultural potential of their medium; the other, its history and traditions.

Two programs in communication: three-year undergraduate course in Journalism; three-year undergraduate course in Cinema, TV and Multimedia. In the first year, students take a number of mandatory courses as an introduction to communications. In the second and third years, there are six workshops in cinema. At the undergraduate level all students in cinema are required to produce 16mm / super video films in this practical course in fiction and documentary. The Master's degree in communications is more theoretical. The Master's in Multimedia requires production of a project in a multimedia format. All students must produce a thesis. A PhD program is also offered. Please call for details.

Programs Available
The Department of Media Production and Studies offers programs leading to the degrees of BFA (film & video production), BA (film & video studies) & BA Honours (film & video studies).

Overview
Given its position within the Faculty of Fine Arts, the Department of Media Production & Studies approaches its subject matter as a means of artistic and cultural expression. By focusing on the creative process, technology and the theoretical and critical analysis of film and video texts, the Department offers an environment that integrates the Studies and Production disciplines. Thus, the BA students gain both a practical and a theoretical understanding of the image-making process, and the BFA students benefit by having access to more than a simple production-oriented understanding of the same process. Furthermore, the Department's mandate encourages students / artists to develop their own unique voice in their chosen medium. The result is that the program does not turn out a single style of image making or critical thought, but rather allows for a great diversity of expression from the most avant-garde to the most mainstream.

Bachelor of Arts (four-year)
A traditional four-year liberal arts degree which allows students to develop the basic skills of analysis, problem solving, decision making and communication along with a concentration in Film Studies. Armed with these skills, a cross-disciplinary knowledge base and a strong cultural awareness, BA graduates pursue a wide range of careers in such areas as law, business, public administration, secondary and university teaching, arts administration, critics / historians, museum studies, creative writing, advertising and media consulting.

Bachelor of Arts Honours
For those students who meet the higher academic requirements, this program allows greater concentration in the major area, more independent study opportunities and close one-to-one supervision by a faculty member. Students wishing to pursue graduate studies are urged to take this program.

BFA Film and Video
The program begins with an examination of the history, syntax and theory of motion pictures, and then proceeds to the basics of film and videotape production including scriptwriting, directing, recording, editing and music. Technical production classes are complemented by classes in the history and development of cinema, including Canadian and Third World cinema, Hollywood, documentary and contemporary film. Continuation in the BFA program is based on portfolio, interview and grade average. At the end of the BFA program students are able to research and write a story and prepare a shooting script to professional standards; produce, i.e., manage the business side of a production and ensure that it is marketable; and direct all aspects of a production. The program prepares students to become independent film / video artists or writers, directors and producers for the industry. While technical instruction is given and technical knowledge is required, the curriculum is not intended to train technicians.

Operating year-round and publicly accessible, the Library houses a renowned collection of film-related materials for on-site reference purposes. The collection of books, periodicals, soundtrack recordings, posters, photographic stills, videocassettes and extensive clippings on directors, films and film companies, makes this one of the pre-eminent resource centres for film research in Canada. The library recently launched the Canadian Film Encyclopedia, an online resource including almost 500 film titles, with biographical and subject entries, covering some of Canada's foremost historical and modern films and filmmakers. Facilities are available for screening videos and laserdiscs, listening to soundtracks, searching the online in-house database and accessing a variety of film-related CD-ROM products. The Library has acquired the papers of the Canadian film magazine Cinema Canada, which ceased publication in 1989. The Library also holds the David Cronenberg Collection: a variety of materials donated by one of Canada's most acclaimed directors, a large collection of materials from director Atom Egoyan's many film, television, drama and stage productions, as well as annotated scripts and research files from directors Jeremy Podeswa and Bruce McDonald. Library memberships and rate sheets for various services are available upon request.

A division of the Toronto International Film Festival Group, was launched in 1995 to create a broader-based network for Canadian and significant international films. Film Circuit has launched multiple successful screenings of such films as Les Invavsion Barbares, The Corporation, and Flower and Garnet. These films would not be shown in the smaller-sized centres across Canada without Film Circuit. Film Circuit is proving to be a viable network for helping to deliver Canadian films to a broader public spectrum. Currently Film Circuit consists of 160 active communities in Canada alone.

Encompasses two distinct yet complimentary entities that form Canada's premiere not-for-profit film festival and charitable foundation. With this unparalleled resource the organization's goal is to nurture, promote and celebrate the full spectrum of racial and culturally diverse film, video and new media products. Held annually in April, truly embodies the sense of Multiculturalism that Canada aims for by promoting appreciation and not segregation among diverse communities. It provides unique experiences to film going audiences and stimulates interaction among industry professionals, bringing emerging artists from all facets of the industry to network, share and support each other. ReelWorld Foundation organizes a year-round slate of activities: educational and training programs, screenings, roundtable discussions, awards and other events. An important component of the Foundation is our work with marginalized youth and the development of programming focused on youth leadership, media literacy and creative expression through film and video.

The festival has two parts — a school program and a family program — with some programming common to both. The school portion is aimed at Grades 1 and up, the public portion at ages 3 to 12. Both sections include film-related workshops and ancillary activities, presented by some of Toronto's leading craftspeople.

The festival screens family-oriented live action features, feature-length animation, and both animated and live-action shorts. Curatorial preference is given to films that have been neither broadcast nor theatrically released in Canada before. Sprockets takes place in April of each year.

The Film Classification Office regulates the public exhibition, rental and distribution of films and videos in British Columbia. All films shown publicly and all adult videos sold or rented through video retail outlets must be viewed and classified by the Film Classification Office, which has the authority to:

- approve or refuse the exhibition or distribution of a film or adult video
- order removal of prohibited material
- assign advisory captions that appear in all newspaper advertising of a film

The Film Classification Office also:

- licenses theatres, films and video distributors and video retailers, and conducts regular inspections of theatres and video outlets
- is responsible for maintaining community standards in film and video products distributed in B.C.
- monitors legislation, programs and court cases relating to film classification, censorship and obscenity across Canada

The Film Classification Office in B.C. was the first in Canada to adopt the new classification nomenclature developed by provincial classification authorities for the Canadian film and home video industry.
On October 1, 1997, the Province of British Columbia entered into an agreement under which the Province of Saskatchewan recognizes the classifications of films and approvals of adult video products issued by the B.C. Film Classification Office.

Classification

(a) General — Suitable for viewing by persons of all ages. Occasional violence, swearing and coarse language and the most innocent of sexually suggestive scenes and nudity are permitted in this category.

(b) Parental Guidance — Parental guidance advised. Theme or content may not be suitable for all children although there is no age restriction. Motion pictures in this category may contain less-subtle sexually suggestive scenes and nudity and a more realistic portrayal of violence than in the General category; coarse language may occur more often than in the General category.

(c) 14A — Suitable for persons 14 years of age or older. Persons under the age of 14 must view these motion pictures accompanied by an adult. Motion pictures in this category may contain violence, coarse language or sexually suggestive scenes, or any combination of these.

(d) 18A — Persons under 18 years of age must view these motion pictures accompanied by an adult. Motion pictures in this category will contain horror, explicit violence, frequent coarse language, or scenes that are more sexually suggestive than in the 14A category, or any combination of these.

(e) Restricted — Restricted to persons 18 years of age and over. Persons under 18 years of age are not permitted to attend under any circumstances. These motion pictures are "adult motion pictures," as defined in the Motion Picture Act, and may contain explicit sexual scenes, violence or scenes referred to in section 5(3) of the Act, or any combination of these. The director will assign this classification to motion pictures if the director considers that the theme, subject matter or plot of the adult motion picture is artistic, historical, political, educational or scientific.

(f) Adult — Restricted to persons 18 years of age and over. Persons under 18 years of age are not permitted to attend under any circumstances. These motion pictures are "adult motion pictures," as defined in the Act, and may contain explicit sexual scenes or scenes of brutality or torture to persons or animals, or any combination of these, that are portrayed in a realistic and explicit manner; however, the scenes would, in the director's opinion, be tolerable to the community.

Licensing

(1) Unless the director otherwise orders, no person shall carry on the business of a motion picture distributor, adult film distributor, video distributor, adult film retailer, video retailer or theatre unless licensed to do so by the director in respect to each location from which the business is carried on.
(2) Where a licensee
  (a) contravenes this Act, the Regulations or a decision of the director made under this Act or under the Regulations, or
  (b) is convicted of an offence under this Act, the director may suspend or cancel a licence that has been issued.
(3) A motion picture distributor shall not distribute a film to a person who carries on business as a theatre unless that person holds a valid licence issued under subsection (1).
(4) An adult film distributor shall not distribute an adult film to an adult film retailer unless that retailer holds a valid licence issued under subsection (1).

Licensing Fees — Schedule 1

(a) For review of a motion picture, other than an adult motion picture, on 35mm film or larger and submitted under section 2(1) of the Act: $12 for the first 10 minutes plus $1.20 for each additional minute or part thereof for the first copy, and $6 for the first 10 minutes plus 60¢ for each additional minute or part thereof for each additional copy.
(b) For review of a motion picture, other than an adult motion picture, on under 35mm film and submitted under section 2(1) of the Act: $5.50 for the first 10 minutes plus 55¢ for each additional minute or part thereof for the first copy, and $2.75 for the first 10 minutes plus 28¢ for each additional minute or part thereof for each additional copy.
(c) For review of an adult motion picture (Restricted or Adult) intended for exhibition to more than one person at a time and submitted under section 2(1) of the Act: $19 for the first 10 minutes plus $1.90 for each additional minute or part thereof, and $11.50 for the first 10 minutes plus $1.16 for each additional minute or part thereof for each additional copy.
(d) For review of an adult motion picture intended for exhibition to only one person at a time and submitted under section 2(1) of the Act: $19 for the first 10 minutes plus $1.90 for each additional minute or part thereof for the first copy, and $11 for each additional copy.
(e) For review of a motion picture submitted under section 2(1) of the Act for a single performance in the Province: $25.
(f) For review of a motion picture intended for distribution to video retailers: $40.
(g) For review of an adult motion picture submitted under section 3(1) of the Act: $37 for the first 10 minutes plus $3.70 for each additional minute or part thereof.
(h) For each decal, certificate or other evidence of approval for each copy of an adult motion picture that was approved under section 5(6) of the Act: $2.
(i) For replacement of the certificate, licence or other evidence of approval for any type of film if the certificate or evidence has been lost or destroyed: $10.
(j) For each stand-in approval: $10.

Video Distribution and Retail

The Motion Picture Act 1986 requires licensing of both video distributors and retailers. Certain material (described in section 5(3) of the Motion Picture Act and section 2 of the Motion Picture Act Regulations) is prohibited in British Columbia. All adult video tapes offered to the public for sale or rental must have a decal which indicates that the contents have been approved by the director of Film Classification. All adult video titles must be physically and visually separate from general release sections in stores. Please consult Film Classification staff for further details on requirements.

Film Classification
The Ontario Film Review Board (OFRB) receives its mandate through the Film Classification Act, 2005 and its regulation and operates as an arms-length agency reporting to the Minister of Government Services. The Film Classification Act 2005, and its Regulation gives the Board the authority to review and classify film that is exhibited, rented or sold in Ontario. The Board members take into account the general character and integrity of each film in its entirety and use the Film Classification Act, 2005 its Regulation and a set of guidelines established by the Board to determine the films classification and approval of adult sex films. The Ontario Film Review Board's objective is to classify film and thereby provide the public with sufficient information to make informed viewing choices for themselves and for their children.

The Board classifies film into five categories:
- General — Suitable for all.
- Parental Guidance – Parental guidance is advised. Theme or content may not be suitable for all children
- 14A — Persons younger than 14 must be accompanied by an adult. Suitable for viewing by persons 14 years of age and older. Persons under 14 must be accompanied by an adult. May contain: violence, coarse language and/or sexually suggestive scenes.
- 18A — Persons younger than 18 must be accompanied by an adult. Suitable for viewing by persons 18 years of age and older. Persons under 18 may attend but must be accompanied by an adult. May contain: explicit violence, frequent coarse language, sexual activity and/or horror.
- Restricted — Restricted to persons 18 years of age and over. Admittance restricted to persons 18 years of age and over. Content not suitable for minors. May contain: frequent use of sexual activity, brutal/graphic violence, intense horror and/or other disturbing content.
- Adult Sex Film Approvals — The Board may approve or refuse to approve adult sex films based on the criteria set out in the regulations under the Film Classification Act, 2005.

Film Classification
Movies exhibited in Prince Edward Island are those passed by the Film Classification Board of Nova Scotia. There is no Board of Censors in P.E.I.

Licence Fee
The annual licence fee is $50 for each coin-operated "kiddie rides" entertainment device. Entertainment devicers that require the use of a coin or a token, such as arcade games and the like, require an annual licence, the fee for which is $200 for each machine.

Sales Tax on Admission Charges
The Entertainments Act has been repealed so a vendor must now register under the Revenue Tax Act and collect sales tax on admission charges at the rate of 10%. Where the admission charge is not shown on the admission ticket or where tickets are not issued, a notice that clearly outlines the tax must be posted. Vendors must record the admission charges collected and the tax remitted. In places of entertainment, the owner is responsible for the collection of admission charges. Some admission charges are exempt of tax under the Act.
For further enquiries, please consult the Taxation and Property Records Division as above.

Film Classification
In Saskatchewan, every exhibitor must prominently display information that explains the film classification categories and associated colour codes. Additional content information and warnings from the Board may also be included.
- General (G) — The contents are considered acceptable for all age groups. Films with this rating are allowed to include: occasional violence, occasional swearing and coarse language, the most innocent of sexually suggestive scenes and nudity. If a film includes any of the above, a warning accompanying the film's advertisements may be required.
- Parental Guidance (PG) — The themes or content of the film may not be suitable for all children, although there is no age restriction.
- 14A — The film is suitable for viewing by people aged 14 or older. Children under 14 are admitted if accompanied by an adult. Films with this rating may contain violence, coarse language, and/or sexually suggestive scenes. Parents cautioned
- 18A — The film is suitable for viewing by people aged 18 or older — not for people under age 18 unless accompanied by an adult. Films with this rating will contain horror, explicit violence, frequent coarse language and sexually suggestive scenes. Parents strongly cautioned.
- Restricted (R) — People under the age of 18 are not granted entrance to Restricted films. Films with a restricted rating contain some or all of the following: sexually explicit scenes, brutal violence, intense horror and/or other disturbing scenes, frequent use of coarse language and swearing.
- Adult (A) — Admittance is restricted to people 18 years and older. The content is not suitable for minors — contains predominantly sexually explicit activity.

Retail Video Classification
The Saskatchewan Film and Video Classification Board addresses its mandate to classify video by recognizing the British Columbia Film Classification Adult Video Program for Adult videos, and a number of other classification bodies, including the Canadian Home Video Industry Rating Program for non-Adult videos.

REEL SUPPORT
PROUDLY SUPPORTING ASTRAL MEDIA THE HAROLD GREENBERG FUND
FIER DE SOUTENIR ASTRAL MEDIA LE FONDS HAROLD GREENBERG
A Fresh Take on Funding

Why does FUJIFILM choose to stand behind Canada's film industry?

It takes more than actors and directors to get films made. It takes action on the part of film industry participants who care about the future of Canadian film. FUJIFILM is proud to be a long-time sponsor of organizations that recognize Canadian creativity on film, such as The Gemini Awards, The Genie Awards and The Toronto International Film Festival.

At FUJIFILM, we believe the creative voices that define our culture must be cherished, nurtured and sustained. It is our privilege to support our country's artists by taking action in support of Canadian film. It is in this spirit of pride and sponsorship that FUJIFILM is proud to help launch the Reel Support Initiative, which contributes a portion of our negative film and video stock sales to Astral Media The Harold Greenberg Fund.

FEEL IT.
OR
FILM. THE DIFFERENCE.
ONLY FILM SEES THE WAY YOU DO.
You see it. More importantly, you feel it. It's the difference
10 times more resolution makes in portraying nuance and detail.
And it's the way film's organic structure sees like the human eye—not like a machine. So there's nothing between you and your audience.
Make your story one to remember. Visit www.kodak.com/go/kcimotion
